§ 301.1 Procedures.

(a) Application. (1) A person residing in the United States who desires to become a United States citizen pursuant to section 301(h) of the Act shall submit an application on Form N-600, Application for Certificate of Citizenship, as provided in 8 CFR part 341. Such application shall be filed with the Service office having jurisdiction over the applicant's place of residence, or with such other Service office as the Commissioner may designate. It must be accompanied by the fee specified in 8 CFR 103.7(b)(1). The application also must be accompanied by supporting documentary and other evidence essential to establish the claimed citizenship, such as birth, adoption, marriage, death, and divorce certificates. The applicant will be notified in writing when and where to appear before a Service officer for examination on his or her application.

(2) A person residing outside of the United States who desires to become a United States citizen under subsection 301(h) of the Act shall make his or her claim at a United States embassy or consulate, in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State.

(b) Oath of allegiance; issuance of certificate. (1) Upon determination by the district director that a person is eligible for United States citizenship pursuant to section 301(h) of the Act, the person shall take the oath of allegiance, prescribed in 8 CFR part 337, before an officer of the Service designated to administer the oath of allegiance within the United States, and a certificate of citizenship shall be issued. The person shall be considered a United States citizen as of the date of his or her birth.

(2) A person residing outside of the United States who is eligible for United States citizenship under section 301(h) of the Act shall make his or her claim abroad before any diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State. The person shall be considered a United States citizen as of the date of his or her birth.
